PAUL'S LETTER TO THE

Ephesians

“Content makes poor men rich.
Discontent makes rich men poor.”

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

1706-1790

The image features a parchment scroll with a Bible verse, set against a background of ancient stone ruins. The scroll is rectangular with a light beige, textured surface and a dark brown border. The text is written in a dark brown, serif font. The background consists of a large, irregular opening in a wall made of reddish-brown bricks and lighter-colored stone, suggesting an ancient or historical setting. The lighting is warm, highlighting the textures of the parchment and the stone.

¹⁷Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy.

A photograph of an ancient brick archway, likely a tunnel entrance, with the text "Ephesians 1" overlaid in a serif font. The arch is constructed from reddish-brown bricks and is set within a larger structure of lighter-colored stone or plaster. The interior of the arch is dark and shadowed, creating a sense of depth and mystery. The text is centered horizontally and vertically within the archway.

PRESENT

We ARE BEING Redeemed

³For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: ⁴That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
